LAKE NORMAN TAEKWONDO PARTNERS WITH CITY TO PROMOTE SAFETY

One lucky participant will win free enrollment and the first month of classes

MOORESVILLE, NC (July 29, 2009) – Lake Norman Taekwondo America is pleased to announce that it has partnered with the Mooresville Police Department for National Night Out on Tuesday, Aug. 4.

The community's best and longest-running martial arts school will also provide taekwondo demonstrations during the festivities in downtown Mooresville during the crime-prevention and safety awareness event.

Lake Norman Taekwondo America will also hold a drawing for free enrollment, first month of martial arts classes, uniform, student manual and school patch, valued at $165. The drawing is free to enter and the winner is not required to be present.

Community members are encouraged to stop by and watch the free demonstrations. We will have an information booth with a martial arts representative available to answer questions about self-defense and safety.

National Night Out is an annual event focused on heightening crime and drug prevention awareness, generating support for and participation in local anti-crime efforts, strengthening neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships and sending a message to criminals that neighborhoods are fighting back.

Master Phuoc Dang, Sixth Degree Black Belt and owner/chief instructor of Lake Norman Taekwondo America in Mooresville, is currently accepting registration for
